

Special Event Planning
Health Permit

Food items should be served and prepared in a sanitary manner consistent with the San Joaquin Health Department. Vendors selling any food items or providing food to give away are required to be in compliance with the San Joaquin Health Department. Temporary food service must have all appropriate business licenses, permits, and insurance.

Once an application has been approved by the San Joaquin Health Department, approval of application must be taken to the City of Stockton, Community Service Department and be filed with special event application.
