City of Stockton Accepting Applications for Committee and Commission Openings

(Stockton, CA) - The City of Stockton is currently accepting applications for the Public Art Advisory Committee, Civil Service Commission, Stockton Arts Commission, and the San Joaquin County Commission on Aging. These are volunteer positions, and all applicants must be registered to vote and live within the City limits of the City of Stockton throughout the term of service. The City encourages applicants to submit applications one week prior to the scheduled interview date. Applications received after the deadlines will be considered for future recruitments.

Public Art Advisory Committee meets once every other month, works with the Stockton Arts Commission, and makes recommendations on public art projects and the City's Public Art Master Plan. Interviews for these volunteer positions will be held February 18, 2015.

Parks and Recreation Commission meets once a month and acts as the agent of the governing boards of its constituents (City of Stockton, County of San Joaquin, and Unified School Districts representing Stockton, Lincoln, Lodi, and Manteca). The interview date for this position is February 4, 2015.
