City of Stockton Arbor Day Ceremony

(Stockton, CA) – The City of Stockton will host an Arbor Day ceremony at Stribley Park, 1706 E. Sonora, Thursday, March 10, 2011, at 11:00 a.m.

The Arbor Day program of speakers will include Mayor Ann Johnston, Councilmember Susan Eggman and Public Works Director Bob Murdoch. A performance by The Advocates is scheduled. The Advocates are a musical performance group from Person Centered Services that participates in weekly activities at Stribley Community Center.

The public is welcome to attend. Interested guests may join The Advocates and members of the Public Works Department Tree Division to plant trees in Stribley Park after the ceremony.

National Arbor Day is the last Friday in April, but many states observe Arbor Day on different dates according to their best tree-planting times. California Arbor Day is held each year during the second week in March.
